Los fans de Calle Dublín de Samantha Young reencontrarán aquí a algunos de los personajes de esa estupenda novela, y los que aún lo la hayan leído sin duda querrán hacerse con ella. Ellie Carmichael llevaba años enamorada de Adam Sutherland, el mejor amigo de su hermano Braden. Sin embargo, por la forma en que la trata está claro que, para Adam, Ellie es como una hermana pequeña. Con el tiempo, el enamoramiento juvenil de Ellie se ha transformado en un amor más maduro, aunque ella no se decide a tomar la iniciativa. Como si esto fuera poco, la actitud de Adam hacia ella ha ido cambiando. Es evidente que siente afecto hacia Ellie y que esta le atrae sexualmente, pero su lealtad hacia Braden y su temor a echar a perder la única relación familiar que ha tenido en su vida le impiden acercarse a ella de la forma en que le gustaría. Y entonces, una noche, ocurre algo que pondrá a prueba los sentimientos de ambos. Pronto el amor, el deseo, el temor y los celos se combinarán para cambiar la relación entre ambos para siempre. Y Adam descubrirá, de forma insospechada, que la vida es demasiado corta para dejar pasar al amor de tu vida.

"Under the cover of an Islam that has been distorted by ignorantists, some fanatics, corruptors of the faith, who are at ease with ignominy, commit the worst crimes against God and humanity. By distorting Islâm and all the universal, moral values, they are cultivating discord, hatred of others, violence and sectarianism. Although it is undeniable that these demonic criminals target and threaten civilisation as a whole, Muslims are the first victims of their theories and their nightmarish practices." (Farid Gabteni) The Sun Rises in the West by Farid Gabteni is published in two volumes: Science for the Hour and Programmed Coincidence. Each of the volumes features a preface by a doctor in history and philosophy of science, the first by Doctor Fouzia Madani and the second by Doctor Ismaël Omarjee. This scientific treatise, extended to all Quranic Readings, is a pathbreaking masterpiece and constitutes a rigorous and irrefutable argument against obscurantism. It restores likewise the original Message of Islam to both Muslims and non-Muslims. Science, conscience, peace and tolerance: these are the Quran's and of Islam's form and content, masterly exposed by the author of the book, through an applied and demonstrative study.

Methods Devour Themselves is a dialogue between fiction and non-fiction. Inspired by Quentin Meillassoux's Science Fiction and Extro-Science Fiction that was paired with an Isaac Asimov short story, this book examines the ways in which stories can provoke philosophical interventions and philosophical essays can provoke stories. Alternating between Benjanun Sriduangkaew's fiction and J. Moufawad-Paul's non-fiction, Methods Devour Themselves is an interstitial project that brings fiction and essay into a unique, avant-garde whole.

Marketing visionary Martin Lindstrom has been on the front line of the branding for over twenty years. In Brandwashed, he turns the spotlight on his own industry, drawing on all he has witnessed behind closed doors, exposing for the first time the full extent of the psychological tricks and traps that companies devise to win our hard-earned money. Lindstrom reveals eye opening details such as how advertisers and marketers target children at an alarmingly young age (starting when they are still in the womb), what heterosexual men really think about when they see sexually provocative advertising, how marketers and retailers stoke the flames of public panic and capitalize on paranoia over diseases, extreme weather events, and food contamination scares. It also presents the first ever evidence to prove how addicted we are to our smartphones, and how certain companies (like the maker of a very popular lip balm), purposely adjust their formulas in order to make their products chemically addictive, and much, much more. Brandwashed is a shocking insider's look at how today's global giants conspire to obscure the truth and manipulate our minds, all in service of persuading us to buy.

ENGLISH DESCRIPTION Charlie Joe Jackson may be the most reluctant reader ever born. And so far, he's managed to get through life without ever reading an entire book from cover to cover. But now that he's in middle school, avoiding reading isn't as easy as it used to be. And when his friend Timmy McGibney decides that he's tired of covering for him, Charlie Joe finds himself resorting to desperate measures to keep his perfect record intact. Charlie Joe Jackson's Guide to Not Reading by Tommy Greenwald is the hilarious story of an avid non-reader and the extreme lengths to which he'll go to get out of reading a book.

When Jocelyn leaves her tragic past behind and moves to Scotland, she meets Braden Carmichael, who is determined to get Jocelyn into his bed, despite Jocelyn's hesitancy to get into a relationship.
