A marketing bible for the Information Age. Cliches such as 'everything is changing' are a commonplace nowadays. Right Side Up shows how this 'everything' reaches further, deeper into the heart of modern business than most realise. A fundamental shift in buying patterns has been ignored. In this provocative book leading journalist, Alan Mitchell, rectifies the omission. He shows the emergence of the consumer agent - a new breed of business, which organizes and represents consumers within the marketplace and acts as the catalyst of change. It charts the rise of new types of superbrand which flourish, not because of their prowess at selling, but because they act for, and on behalf of, their consumers and clients - efficiently, effectively and enthusiastically. No major market - including consumer goods, retailing, the media and financial services - will emerge unscathed from this Right Side Up revolution.

In this morning and evening, 365-day devotional featuring her best-loved work, Streams in the Desert, and its popular sequel, Springs in the Valley, Mrs. Charles E. Cowman invites you to tune out the clamor and concerns of today and let these quiet meditations fill your soul with peace.

This book examines perceptions of the 'China Threat', and governments' policies in response to this perceived threat in a wide range of countries, including the United States, Russia, Europe, Japan, South Korea, Indonesia, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, Vietnam, India, Pakistan, and countries in the Middle East. Perceptions of the Chinese themselves are also looked at, the current security concerns and policies of each country are examined in detail, especially the policy of engagement, and future prospects for relations with China are assessed.

Tells what moonlight is, what keeps the moon in the sky, its effect on the Earth, and what it is like, and discusses the satellites of the other planets.

The Holy Spear of Destiny has been vandalised in its display in the Vienna Hofburg Museum. When she is called upon by the authorities to test the authenticity of the spear, metallurgist Vanessa Descartes quickly realises she is involved in a horrific murder case. She is joined in the investigation by eccentric Oxford scholar Dr. Emmanuel Khalamanga, who is convinced of a connection to ancient Holy Grail legends and Professor Tomas de Carranza, best-selling author of radical Biblical histories. This diverse trio find themselves in a race against time with the Vienna police department to solve the growing mystery. But as they interpret the symbols left at the scene, and discover more pieces of the puzzle, an even more terrifying reality reveals itself - the existence of an invisible 'holy war' that has been fought since the Middle Ages, and is about to end in blood and death on the streets of Vienna... Illustrated by the author with 5 black and white plates.

108 true short stories-primarily hunting and fishing-that challenge us to understand the lessons God wants to teach through the things we enjoy most.
