"What happened to me that early morning during the Christmas of 1937 changed the course of my life and outlook. I sat in a small room in a house on the outskirts of Jammu. I was meditating. Practice had accustomed me to sit in the same posture for hours without discomfort, and as I sat breathing slowly and rhythmically, my attention was drawn towards the crown of my head, contemplating an imaginary lotus in full bloom, radiating light. I sat unmoving and erect. My whole being was so engrossed in the contemplation of the lotus that for several minutes I lost touch with my body and surroundings. The only object of which I was aware was a lotus of brilliant colour, emitting rays of light. During a spell of intense concentration I suddenly felt a strange sensation below the base of the spine, at the place touching the seat, while I sat cross-legged on a folded blanket spread on the floor. The sensation was so extraordinary and pleasing that my attention was forcibly drawn towards it. My heart beat wildly, and I found it difficult to bring my attention to the required degree of fixity. The sensation extended upwards, growing in intensity. Then, suddenly, with a roar like that of a waterfall, I felt a stream of liquid light entering my brain through the spinal cord. What had happened to me? Was I hallucinating? Or had I by some strange fate succeeded in experiencing the Transcendental? I had read glowing accounts, written by learned men, of great benefits resulting from concentration and of the miraculous powers acquired by yogis through meditation. Was there, after all, really some truth in the repeated claims of the sages and ascetics of India, made for thousands of years that it was possible to apprehend reality in this life if one practised meditation in a certain way? Little did I realize that from that day onwards I was never to be my old normal self again. I had unwittingly and without adequate knowledge, roused to activity the most powerful power in man. I had stepped unknowingly upon the key to the most guarded secret of the ancients, and thenceforth for a long time, I had to live suspended by a thread, swinging between life and death, between sanity and insanity, between lights and darkness, between heaven and earth." An extraordinary autobiographical account of what happens in the mind and body when Kundalini gets spontaneously aroused... one of the clearest journals documenting spiritual transformation and mental evolution onto a higher plane of consciousness. Take a journey through Consciousness as it unfolds in time and space to reveal ever more novel forms of Self-expression. Your guide, Eugene Allende, will take you to your deepest core, revealing a fundamental Truth that has been known by Mystics for millenia and is recently being rediscovered by our leading-edge sciences. This fundamental Truth, that all of existence springs forth from a Unified Field that is timeless and ever-present, will be the foundation of your journey. From this Unified Source, you will explore the various stages and levels of Cosmic and individual evolution and development, and see how these levels and dimensions come together to create your current experience. Your host will take you on an intellectual, visionary, and experiential journey through the various dimensions of your collective and individual Being, and in that journey, help you discover who you truly are. Through this discovery you will once again remember the true creative power that lies dormant in the depths of your Being, awakening to the reality that we can transform and heal ourselves and our world. Take advantage of this life time to probe the depths of what it is to be conscious, and in that Consciousness, discover your fundamental connection to all that is. Home at Last explains specific landmarks that we encounter during the journey toward enlightenment, based on the author's direct experience. The book also lets readers know what they can expect when confronting the mysterious, awakened inner force called kundalini. It explains how our outlook and goals change radically as kundalini directs our day-to-day life. Part spiritual memoir, part meditation handbook, Chiruvolu's writings are clear and accessible yet contain profound spiritual insights covering: * The nature of prana, or vital life force; how to increase its presence in our system; and the process of transmitting pranic energy from teacher to student. * Detailed information on the important roles of diet, exercise, and training the mind in preparation for the journey of realization. * The physical and psychological challenges one can expect during the extended process of awakening. * Possible impediments to raising the energy, and how to transcend them. * How to adapt to living and working with this powerful new energy in the context of everyday life.

The realities surrounding the psychological experience of disability, plus the intervention techniques used to resolve some of the problems, have changed dramatically since the publication of the first edition of this classic text. This revised edition describes changes that have come out of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as well as technological advances, new legislation, and evolving health care systems. It addresses the growing interest in racial and ethnic diversity, and includes an exploration of spirituality and disability, as well as a look at new partnerships, such as within the community, that have developed. There has been an explosion of work on consciousness in the last 30–40 years from philosophers, psychologists, and neurologists. Thus, there is a need for an interdisciplinary, comprehensive volume in the field that brings together contributions from a wide range of experts on fundamental and cutting-edge topics. The Routledge Handbook of Consciousness fills this need and makes each chapter's importance understandable to students and researchers from a variety of backgrounds. Designed to complement and better explain primary sources, this volume is a valuable "first-stop" publication for undergraduate or graduate students enrolled in any course on "Consciousness," "Philosophy of Mind," or "Philosophy of Psychology," as well as a valuable handbook for researchers in these fields who want a useful reference to have close at hand. The 34 chapters, all published here for the first time, are divided into three parts: Part I covers the "History and Background Metaphysics" of consciousness, such as dualism, materialism, free will, and personal identity, and includes a chapter on Indian philosophy. Part II is on specific "Contemporary Theories of Consciousness," with chapters on representational, information integration, global workspace, attention-based, and quantum theories. Part III is entitled "Major Topics in Consciousness Research," with chapters on psychopathologies, dreaming, meditation, time, action, emotion, multisensory experience, animal and robot consciousness, and the unity of consciousness. Each chapter begins with a brief introduction and concludes with a list of "Related Topics," as well as a list of "References," making the volume indispensable for the newcomer and experienced researcher alike.

Ervin Laszlo calls us to a profound shift in consciousness founded in the understanding that we are truly connected with each other and with the cosmos. Worldshift 2012 describes the tools we have to make our world greener and our planet safer.

An accessible exploration of best-selling author's most famous work, The Map of Consciousness, that helps readers experience healing and transcendence. We are all born with a level of consciousness, an energetic frequency within the vast field of consciousness. And with The Map of Consciousness, we can truly understand the total spectrum of human consciousness. Using a unique muscle-testing method, Dr. David R. Hawkins conducted more than 250,000 calibrations during 20 years of research to define a range of values, attitudes, and emotions that correspond to levels of consciousness. This range of values-along with a logarithmic scale of 1 to 1,000-became the Map of Consciousness, which Dr. Hawkins first wrote about in his best-selling book, Power vs. Force. With the Map, Dr. David R. Hawkins laid out the entire spectrum of consciousness, from the lower levels of Shame, Guilt, Apathy, Fear, Anger, and Pride; to Courage, Acceptance, and Reason; all the way up to the more expanded levels of Love, Ecstasy, Peace, and Enlightenment. These "higher" energy fields are a carrier wave of immense life energy. An essential primer on the late Dr. David R. Hawkins's teachings on human consciousness and their associated energy fields, The Map of Consciousness Explained offers readers an introduction and deeper understanding of the Map, with visual charts and practical applications to help them heal, recover, and evolve to higher levels of consciousness and energy. This book is a light unto the path of any individual who wants to become more effective in any area of life.

It happened in an instant but the feeling lasted more than an hour. Wave after wave of glowing, humming energy coursed through me. I remember crying? or was it laughing? No, it was cry-laughing. Luckily, I was lying down because otherwise I would have collapsed. It was like pure love and pure energy had been injected into my veins and was flooding every atom of my body. My eyes were closed, and I had a blackout-mask on, but I needed to squint because the white-hot light that shone behind my closed eyes was as bright as the noonday sun. I had been on a personal journey for a few years, looking for answers to something that I knew was there, but was just out of reach. The funny thing is, this was not the destination I had expected or even knew I was looking for. I think that was why I was laughing. The crying? That was because I had never felt more complete, more whole, or more 'at home' at any other time in my life. This was the moment that I met my higher-self for the very first time.

There is an untapped goldmine that exists within each and every one of us, a tremendous treasure trove that defies imagination. If you want to discover this, then keep reading... Are you looking for something more than just another self-help book? Do you often feel overwhelmed, exhausted, and emotionally drained? Do you often ask yourself why you're not happy? Do you get sick often? Do you have difficulty staying in relationships or gravitate toward unhealthy attractions? Do you tend to overthink and worry too much about the future? Are you becoming increasingly cynical and feeling at odds with the world? Do you lack inspiration and creativity and often feel stifled? Do you sometimes wonder why you are here, and what life is all about? Or - are you generally happy in your life but still wonder what it's all about? Your dormant third eye is most likely the cause. How do you feel about learning how to open it and transform your life? Since the beginning of human history, the third eye chakra has been recognized and revered by ancient cultures as a powerful entity that is the gateway from the physical world into the non-physical world. It has been described as "the seat of the soul", "the eye of wisdom", "the inner eye", and "the mind's eye." Awakening the third eye to harness its amazing powers has long been the pursuit of many spiritual schools, including Buddhism and Hinduism. Today, it remains the pursuit of those seeking happiness, health, and wellbeing. When awakened, the third eye allows us to fathom into the non-physical (but very real) spiritual realm, where we can find the true enrichment and purpose that we lack. This is the realm of our higher consciousness where we can claim our deepest intuition, our highest wisdom, and inner abundance to become healthier, more productive, and happier human beings. Today, slowly but surely, science has begun to confirm this. This book is a step-by-step guide that contains all you need to know about your inner eye and the steps required to awaken it. This is not your typical book on spirituality. This is a book about "actionable spirituality," meaning that you will learn very real and effective techniques to awaken, empower, and nurture your dormant third eye. After all, what good are vague theories and spiritual platitudes if you can't apply them to get tangible results? You will learn: How to awaken your third eye to bring your physical and spiritual body into harmony, empowering you to live as your highest possible self. How the amazing and mysterious pineal gland is related to your third eye. Basic groundwork techniques for opening the third eye. Powerful meditations for opening and balancing the third eye. How to nurture your third eye with diet, crystals, color, essential oils and affirmations. How to balance the chakra system. Preparing yourself for the spiritual gifts of psychic dreams, seeing auras and clairvoyance. How to see and read auras. How to interpret psychic dreams and intuitive messages. And much more, including visualizations, lifestyle changes, and simple tips and methods to add to

Gregory the Great was pope from 590-604 and left behind a substantial literary heritage. His most ambitious work and one of the most popular works of scriptural exegesis in the middle ages was the Moralia in Job, commenting the book of Job in 35 books running to over half a million words. Saint Gregory's Commentary on Job was written between 578 and 595, begun when Gregory was at the court of Tiberius II at Constantinople, but finished only after he had already been in Rome for several years. Mind Your Thoughts is a book that will help you quiet and focus your thoughts so you speak directly to your unconscious state of being in a language the mind understands. Meditation is nothing more than relaxation, and in a meditative state, your conscious can relax and allow you to speak directly to the unconscious. The unconscious is in charge of your life, even though you allow your conscious to be in control. If you want to experience change in your life, you need to learn to bypass the conscious control which can be described as critical, analytical, and most of all judgmental. Meditating through relaxation is how you reprogram your unconscious with new concepts and information. The unconscious learns by applying this information against the storage of all your memories, experiences, reactions, and emotions. Also, the unconscious is much more accepting of change because it processes information without judgment. You will see both mental and physical changes resulting from this process. Practice with the thoughts in this book; your unconscious will understand even if your conscious seems confused. Mind your thoughts and experience a human metamorphosis from the inside out. The purpose of meditation is to quiet the mind. Meditation removes the clutter of thoughts from everyday life, and also helps you to get in touch with your higher consciousness. It does take practice, so do not become discouraged. Set aside 45 minutes each evening before you go to sleep. Sit in a quiet room, in a comfortable and relaxed position wearing loose clothing. Close your eyes and take a deep breath in through your nose and let it out slowly through your mouth. With each breath in, clear your mind of all thoughts, and feel your body relax. Repeat this 9 times before beginning. This book contains 81 thoughts for you to meditate on. There are 9 sets of 9 thoughts each. Start with Set One and allow 5 minutes of meditation for each thought. After your initial warm up of 9 deep breaths, read the first thought of the first set. Close your eyes and continue your deep breathing as you reflect on the thought and what it may mean to you and your life. Think of nothing else. Repeat this with each thought until you complete Set One. It will take you at least 9 evenings to get through all of the sets in the book. You may want to repeat a set over and over again before moving on to the next set. Eventually, you will have your favorite thoughts that you will want to dedicate your meditations on. Most people enjoy thoughts of wisdom, but rarely take the time to internalize them enough to be life changing. Practice mindfulness in life and create ripples that will forever change your life. This is not an instructional book on the art of meditation.
